

UNSW
SYDNEY

Participants Wanted for Research Study on Court Interpreters

Do you work as a court interpreter in Australia? Researchers at UNSW are looking to understand how interpreter experience and perceive their professional status when working in courts.

You are invited if you:

- Hold credentials from NAATI, and
- Have the experience of interpreting in courts
- Interpreters who work with new and emerging Languages are preferred

Location: Online Zoom Interview

Participation Involves:

- Taking part in an interview to share your experience of working in courts (approximately 50 minutes)

Participants will be compensated with a $80 eGift Card and 10 PD points

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Please contact Hang Cui

Email: hang.cui@unsw.edu.au

This research is part of a PhD project by the student investigator. This project has been approved by the UNSW HREAP B: Arts, Architecture, Design, and Law on 16 May 2023 under ethics approval No. HC230143