

CPI Online Test: Checklist

What to do before the test	Y/N
Read the NAATI Terms and conditions http://naati.com.au/resources/terms-and-conditions
Read the Language Policy for Interpreting Tests https://www.naati.com.au/resources/language-policy-interpreting/
Read the CPI Online Candidates' instructions https://www.naati.com.au/resources/candidate-instructions-cpi-auslan/
Complete the free practice tests on NAATI Learn https://learn.naati.com.au/
Attend the NAATI Q&A session

What NAATI will provide you before the test	Y/N
2-3 weeks prior Auslan/Deaf Online Test Preparation Checklist (PDF)
2-3 weeks prior to the test: Invite from NAATI to attend mandatory Q&A Session
4-7 days before the test: email from NAATI with zoom meeting invitation and test start time
7 days before the test: email from NAATI containing the monologue task brief
3 days before the test: email from NAATI containing the dialogue task briefs

What to bring into the test	Y/N
Laptop or PC
Power cord for laptop
Microphone
Functional high-definition webcam
Working audio speakers or headset

CPI Online Test: Checklist

Mobile phone
Good internet connection
Access to Zoom
Quiet room with plain background
Pens
Blank paper to take notes
Water
Photo identification (Passport or Australian/New Zealand drivers' licence)
Zoom meeting link to join the test (refer to email from NAATI 4-7 days before the test)
Task briefs (single printed/handwritten on A4 sheets): They can contain your preparation notes. Only one sheet per task brief is allowed.	